What is FindFamilyRoots.com?

FindFamilyRoots.com is an African American History and Genealogy website. The Viewer's Families, Posting Pictures, and Genealogy Assistance pages provide assistance and support when researching your family history.

The Men, Women, Cemeteries, Churches, Historic Places, Historic Places List, Museums, and Schools pages explore the familiar and not well known people, places and events in African American history.

Research Your Family History

Exploring your family history can be a fun and exciting process. It is not an exact science and can be conducted in various ways. Your research can begin with any family member, living or deceased. If you run into an obstacle you can't seem to get around, take a break or begin research on a different family member.

Research Tips

- Document what you already know about your family history.
- Keep records of the what, when, where, how and why.
- Talk to older family members about people, places and events.
- View family pictures and learn about the people in them.
- Create a family history timeline and become familiar with U.S., African American, and Native America history.
- Use Vital Records.
- Learn how your family interacted with city, county, state, and federal recordkeeping agencies.
- Use websites such as FindFamilyRoots.com and Ancestry.com to assist you.
